

"Ghost Chickens in the Sky"

1. A [Em] chicken farmer took a walk out on his farm one [G] day,
He [Em] paused by the coop as he went along his [G] way, [B7]
When [Em] all at once a rotten egg it hit him in the eye,
It was a [Am] sight he dreaded. . . Ghost Chickens in the [Em] sky.

CHORUS:

[Em] Ert-ur-er-er-[G] erh, Ert-ur-er-er-[Em] erh,
[Am] Ghost chickens in the [Em] sky.

2. He's [Em] been a chicken farmer since he was [G] 24, [URP!]
Working [Em] for the Colonel 30 years or [G] more, [B7]
Killin' [Em] all them chickens and sending them to fry.
And now they [Am] want revenge. . . Ghost Chickens in the [Em] sky!

CHORUS

Verse (Of Clucking Chicken Voice)

3. Their [Em] beaks were black and shiny and their eyes were blazin' [G] red.
They [Em] didn't have no feathers, these chickens all were [G]dead[B7]
They [Em] picked the farmer up and he died by the claw.
They cooked him [Am] extra crispy and they ate him with [Em] coleslaw.

CHORUS (Standard)
